

Why Should You Consider The Port of Virginia As A Partner In E-Commerce?

THE PORT PROVIDES DIGITAL TOOLS AND PROVEN TECHNOLOGY, resulting in data that drives improved performance. Automated container stacks allow for round-the-clock cargo efficiencies. The PRO-PASS Truck Reservation System maximizes gate capacity and yard productivity. You have real-time visibility of your cargo, supported by an experienced Customer Service Team.

Virginia provides access to a market of more than 100 million consumers, within a 700-mile radius of the port

Virginia reduces lead time, and lowers inventory costs, with a central East Coast distribution location

Over four million square feet of e-commerce fulfillment space has been announced since 2019

The Port's on-dock rail access with Norfolk Southern and CSX and proximity to key interstates - I-95, I-64, I-85 reduces delivery time and costs, while expanding access the marketplace

The port facilitates opportunities to partner with more than 93 established 3PL's in Virginia, creating final mile delivery options

We offer dependable access to global markets, with more than 30 direct ocean carrier weekly services

